- Students will report to their first session class upon arrival to school.
- This format will be an open campus.
- Attendance will be taken each exam period.
- You do not have to arrive until your first scheduled final of the day.
- Following your last session of testing, you may leave if you present a note from your parent.
- The note must contain your name, parent signature and date.
- You will need a new note each day.
- If you do not have a final on one of these three days, a note must be turned in the previous day stating that you will not be at school due to not having a final on that given day.
- Notes will be collected in the attendance office, and students will only be permitted to leave through the front doors.
- You may not leave after one session and return for another in the same day. (ie. If you have a final in the first session, and then another in the third session, you must remain at school and report to your second session period in between finals.
- All buses run at normal time.
- For those students who do not have transportation to arrive later or leave after testing, you will report to the assigned periods on the schedule.
- Any student who has missing assignments will be required to stay at school until work has been completed. Once all missing assignments have been completed, the student will be allowed to participate in the open campus for exams (at teacher's discretion).
